under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). √ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) \square (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. \square (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II— Statement of the Reasons for Detention I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by \checkmark clear and convincing evidence \square a preponderance of the evidence that Clear and convincing evidence the defendant is a danger to the community. Defendant is indicted for offenses which trigger the rebuttable presumption under 18 U.S.C. 3142(e). The return of the indictment finding probable cause that defendant committed the offense is sufficient to trigger the presumption. The pretrial services report contains a summary of defendant's prior record, which includes violent felony convictions, misdemeanor drug convictions, and a history of multiple probation/release violations and revocations. Based on the prior record of defendant and the rebuttable presumption, I conclude the defendant is a danger to the community and that there is no condition or combinations of conditions that can protect the safety of any other person and the community. Defendant must therefore be detained without bail. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance. s/ Susan K, Lee 11/02/2011 Date: Judge's Signature
